IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE TWENTIETH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR CHARLOTTE COUNTY, FLORIDA CIVIL ACTION

IN RE
JOHN JONES,
Petitioner,
and
JANICE JONES,
Respondent,

Petitioner and respondent always stays the same no matter who is filing the motion.

CASE NO. 08-1234CA

This is called the "Caption."

This is called the "heading." It tells what thepleading is for.

MOTION TO CONTINUE

"pro se" means you're representing yourself.

NOW COMES, respondent, Janice Jones, Pro Se, files this, her motion to continue and states:

This is the respondent's motion.

1. The petition for dissolution of marriage in this case was filed on January 15, 2008.
2. Mediation is scheduled for February 28th, 2008.
3. Respondent will be unavailable on February 28th due to a mandatory training she has for work.
4. Respondent asks this court to please continue the mediation and reschedule it for a date in March.

This is the "wherefore" clause, tells the judge what you want.

Wherefore, Petitioner humbly prays that this Honorable court grant the above styled action together with all costs, fees, economic and noneconomic relief, and make any ruling that this court deems to be fair, equitable, and just.

The "Certificate of Service" has to be in every pleading.

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I certify that a copy of this document was [√ one only] (X) mailed ( ) faxed and mailed ( ) hand delivered to the person(s) listed below on *{date}*_____.

Other party or his/her attorney:
Name: _____
Address: _____
Fax Number: _____

Dated:_____

You put the date down that you sent a copy to the other side, then sign.

_____
Signature of Petitioner
Printed Name: _____
Address: _____
City, State, Zip: _____
Telephone Number: _____
Fax Number: _____